STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

Complainant is an Officer with the Mankato Police Department who believes the information set out below is true and accurate based on reports and information submitted to the Officer by Officer Mohamed Mohamed and others identified herein.

Mankato Department of Public Safety Police Officer Kelly Wood states that on September 4, 2016, at approximately 3:00 a.m., she and other officers responded to an address in the City of Mankato in reference to a disturbance. The dispatcher advised that the disturbance involved a male, who was subsequently identified as Isaiah Joshua Olson-Haverly. A female, subsequently identified as Victim 1, called police because Olson-Haverly had damaged her vehicle and was throwing rocks at her residence.

Upon arrival, Olson-Haverly was located in the area and detained. Officer Wood made contact with Victim 1, who stated that she and Olson-Haverly had previously been in a relationship and were seeing each other "on and off." They were separated but still spending time with one another. Olson-Haverly's behavior has been becoming increasingly more aggressive and violent. Olson-Haverly brought his dog to her house. She made it clear to Olson-Haverly that they were not getting involved in a sexual relationship. They went to the downtown entertainment district with friends, and both consumed alcoholic beverages. Victim 1 believed that Olson-Haverly wanted to pursue sexual intercourse, and she was not interested and told him to leave. He became upset and jealous and accused her of "sleeping around." He was told to leave but simply stood in the doorway. She felt intimidated, and he finally left the residence. She immediately texted her friend, Witness 1, and expressed that she was "scared and needed her help now."

Witness 1 came to her residence, and they locked all the doors and windows. They were fearful that Olson-Haverly might try to break into the residence based upon his previous behavior. She recalled a previous encounter in which he thought he left his credit card at her house and banged on the front door so hard that she thought he might break it down in order to get inside. She stated that Olson-Haverly has become increasingly manipulative and provided some examples.

A short while later, Victim 1 and Witness 1 reported hearing a loud bang; and they looked out the window and observed Olson-Haverly across the street throwing rocks at the residence. Victim 1 reported being scared and fearful and believed that he intended to harm her or Witness 1. He was across the street for about ten minutes, then left. They went outside and observed a dent in the hood of her vehicle but found no visible damage to the residence.

Officer Mohamed Mohamed located Olson-Haverly. Olson-Haverly admitted to being at the residence and denied any wrongdoing.

SIGNATURES AND APPROVALS

Complainant requests that Defendant, subject to bail or conditions of release, be:
